

I stongly support the Indiana Telephone Privacy act.
As a consumer I pay for my own telephone. Businesses who may want to call me do not pay for my telephone or pay me for my time and effort required to answer unwanted telephone calls. I do not want these calls. These people can advertise in the newspaper or on radio or television.